

Investor Conference 2017

With a mission to inspire you and to give you something to think about, our annual investor conference has built a reputation as a highly valuable and unique gathering.?

Sector AM's 17th annual investor conference was successfully held at the Astrup Fearnley Museum on June 14, 2017.

This year with the theme Non-Linear Thinking for a Non-Linear Reality, the speakers delivered informative, challenging and inspiring talks. As our distinguished guest and speaker, professor Steve Keen said:

It was one of the very few conferences of any type, academic, political or corporate, where I came away thinking that I'd learnt something valuable.

Speakers at the conference included: Gao Xiqing, Martin Ford, Dr. Gerd Gigerenzer, Prof. Steve Keen, David Murrin, Knut N. Kjær and J. Peter Andersland. The conference was moderated by former CNN Financial Editor Todd Benjamin. You can find the full program here.
